

Media Clarification Statement

In response to certain speculative comments circulated on social media and in the press, containing allegations regarding potential actions against a major Mexican bank by the U.S. federal authorities.

Banorte hereby states that such allegations are entirely unfounded and unrelated to the institution, and that it has no knowledge whatsoever of any facts or circumstances that would support them, much less any connection between such allegations and Banorte and/or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries.

Banorte is widely recognized for upholding the highest compliance standards in the market and remains in close proximity with both the Mexican and U.S. authorities and, as it consistently does, will continue to keep the market informed of any material events, in accordance with the applicable legal framework.
